

Compare your lists with mine. My list is not extensive but I tried to list the obvious points. Are there things that I've missed? Are there things that you've missed?

City of Bristol (here and now)

- We have a sun that lights up the day
- We have a moon that lights up the night
 - The city is bright and colourful
- Children stay in education until 16-18
- We have access to lots of different foods
- We have a Prime Minister and a Government who makes all our rules

City of Ember (future)

- No sunlight to help with telling the time
- No moonlight to light up the night sky
 - A generator lights up the city
 - Limited types of food
- Children do not work at the age of 12 years
- A mayor is in charge of the city
