

Enquiry Week 1

An artefact is an object made by a human that tells us about the past. Artefacts are usually primary sources which means it was created at the time.

These artefacts were used by a group of people called Vikings. Can you write down what you think they were used for?

