

Wednesday 6th May 2020

English

Task 2: Use a full sentence to answer the following question in your book

What is direct speech?

1

Reporting what somebody has said.

2

Using the exact words somebody has said in a quote.

3

Asking someone a question directly.

4

Somebody giving a speech at an event.

*Direct speech is using the exact words somebody has said in a quote.
(Option 2)*

Task 3: Use the information given by the people below who were interviewed and turn them into quotes using direct speech. One has been done for you:

Don't forget to use accurate speech punctuation!

Crabbie

Angrily, Crabbie exclaimed, "That flippin' Hagrid is to blame for all this. He should never have been allowed to take that class!"

Hermione

"I cannot believe that Malfoy acted in such a ridiculous way," Hermione stated, "It serves him right to get treated like that after what he said to Buckbak. Silly fool!"

Dean Thomas

Anxiously, Dean muttered, "I saw it with my own eyes. Malfoy is the one at fault here. He should have listened to what Hagrid said. If he had been nicer, this would never have happened."

Hagrid

"I was really looking forward to teaching my first proper lesson," Hagrid grumbled. "I couldn't believe it when Malfoy called Buckbeak a name. I'd warned them to be nice to the creatures."

Task 5: Now convert the same quotes from above into reported speech this time!

Crabbie exclaimed that Hagrid was to blame for everything, saying that he should never have been allowed to be in charge.

Hermione stated that it served Malfoy right to be treated in that way after the way he acted.

Dean reported that Malfoy was the one who was at fault because he didn't listen to Hagrid.

According to Hagrid, he had warned them to be nicer to the creatures and he was in disbelief when Malfoy ruined his first lesson which he'd been excited to teach.