1) Can you correct all the mistakes Miss Burnett has made in these sentences and write them again properly?

Remember to look out for spelling (tricky words and spelling rules) and punctuation (capital letters and full stops for example!)

Thair were sum tall, scatterd acacia trees on the plains.

animals stood bigh the muddy watering hole.

The sun wos blazin lighk fire

The grasse playns were vast and Flat.

the sweet acacia trees were as tall as a towir.

what a scorching day it was

2) Can you think of more interesting powerful adjectives to describe these nouns?

The hot sun

The blue sky

The yellow lion

The dry grass

A scary lion

Some cute elephants
