

Friday

Today you are going to write a retell of the story of The Robot and the Bluebird. You should use your story map from yesterday to help you. Remember when you are retelling a story it doesn't have to be exactly the same as the book but try and remember as much detail as you can!

Example:

Here is my story map from yesterday:

Here is how I'm going to start writing my retell. You can start the same way as me or chose your own way to start!

Once upon a time there lived a Robot. He was gentle and caring but one day his heart broke. He asked some other robots to help and they tried to fix his broken heart however...

★ Challenge

Can you add some powerful adjectives and adverbs to your story when you are retelling it?