

Tuesday

Let's look at where we got up to with our story...

And so he carried her in his heart, across frozen wastes until he was deathly tired and his joints groaned with every step.

Today you are going to think about whether the Robot should continue with his journey or stop and write him a letter explaining why.

1. First you will need to decide if you think he should continue his journey or give up.
2. Then you will need to think of 3 reasons why you think he should or should not continue.

You could think about...

- what might happen to the Robot if he carries on
- what might happen to the Bluebird if the Robot gives up and doesn't take her to the South where it is warm
- what might happen to the Robot and Bluebird's friendship if he gives up
- how the Robot may feel afterwards if he gives up

You can start your letter this way if you would like...

Dear Robot,

I am writing to you because I think you _____ continue your journey to the South. I think you _____ carry on because...
