Greeting

Dear Old Man,

Reason for writing

I am writing to you because I want to find out more about your Tin forest.

I read a book and was fascinated to hear how your tropical forest had grown from rusty, dirty rubbish and eventually exotic animals came to live there. It is very different to forests in England so this left me with many questions that I hope you can help me answer.

Questions

Firstly, how did you live in the wide, windswept and lonely land to begin with? I was unsure about how you arrived at this place but was desperate to know more! I hope you don't mind me asking. Secondly, how did the metallic trees grow and were they noisy? Also, did the tin birds sing like normal birds that tweet or were their voices like robots? Last but not least, when the tiger first appeared, were you petrified?

I look forward to your reply and learning more all about your magical home.

Ending sentence

Yours Sincerely,
Miss Burnett
