

Wednesday – Proper nouns

Nouns have a capital letters if they are a name of something specific.

These are called proper nouns.

The name of a person, specific place, day or month.

1. Can you correct the capital letters that I have missed on the proper nouns in these sentences?

In Africa there are giraffes and elephants.

On Tuesday I went to the shop with Bob to buy crisps.

In August we go to London to visit Aunty Sara.

2. Can you think of an example of each proper noun that would need capital letters?

	Proper noun
Name of a person	Miss Ellison-Smith
Name of a continent	North America
Name of a country	Somalia
Name of a city	London
Day of the week	Friday
Month of the year	February

3. Can you write a sentence using a proper noun?

Challenge: how many proper nouns can you use in one sentence?

Can you use more than 2?