

For each piece of text, write a sentence to show how you think Varjak is feeling and why.

Varjak is feeling _____ because _____

★ For each question, add a sentence that says 'I think this because...'

1.	Had he done the right thing? Shouldn't he have helped his grandfather? He couldn't get that picture out of his mind: the Elder Paw, limp, like a broken toy.
2.	Varjak walked the wall like he'd been walking walls all his life. He was light and springy on his paws. It worked: the Way actually worked! He wasn't dizzy any more. He didn't feel sick.
3.	His heart beat faster just looking at it. It seemed like a city where anything could happen, and probably did. A place you could do whatever you liked, and no one would stop you.
4.	A violent sound cut through his thoughts. It was like shrieking and roaring at the same time. The sound came from a black road that circled the park in the distance.
5.	The quest was too hard. It was impossible. His stomach turned into a heavy lump of despair.
